NEGRO IS PLACE ON PROBATION

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — U. S. District Judge J. Smith Hentley today placed Arthur Johnson, a Washakie Negro, on two years' probation after he pleaded guilty to possession of 30 gallons of untaxed liquor last July 28.

Vote Rights Case Heard in Louisiana

By DAVID ZIMMAN

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Louisiana Negroes today are scheduled for the second day to have a web of devices in which they claim vote registrars are systematically catching them to deprive them of their right to vote.

"It's pure prejudice on the part of the registrars as to why there are not as many Negroes registered as there could be," testified Ernest N. Francis Jr., a Jackson Parish undertaker.

The U. S. Civil Rights Commission, a fact-finding body, is ending a two-day hearing on complaints of voter discriminations in Louisiana.

Only 28 per cent of eligible Louisiana Negroes are registered, the commission said. That compares with 82 per cent of eligible white voters.

Negroes—a vast majority from rural north Louisiana parishes—told the commission Tuesday they sometimes waited in line all day to register. While applicants merely waited in line of them, they said.

When the Negroes got in, a slight error—like "circling" a word instead of underlining it—often disqualified them, witnesses testified.

Others told the commission they were told there were no registration blanks available, or the registrar was out. Or they did not report their age correctly to the year, month and day. Or they hadn't properly identified themselves.

The Rev. Theodore M. Hesburgh, president of Notre Dame University and one of the commission members, said he found it "incredible" that a registrar had denied the ballot to Dr. John T. Reddix of Monroe, a Negro dentist.

Father Hesburgh said he would report the refusal directly to President Eisenhower.

Jury Holds Fate of a Slayer

WACO, Tex. (AP)—A jury of 11 men and one woman today deliberated the fate of John Junior James, 30, whom the state is seeking to put to death for a hold-up slaying.

James testified at his one day trial here Tuesday that he shot John M. Blackford, 67, last Jan. 29 "but I didn't mean to kill him."

He testified he ran up to where Blackford was scuffling with his brother, Loyal Lavon James, 23, and "I asked him to get up. He didn't. I fired."

Blackford was a customer in the supermarket, which was robbed of about $2,500.

Prosecution attorneys Tuesday asked the jury to inflict the death penalty on James.

The jury deliberated until 1:15 a.m. before being excused for the night. It resumed deliberations when court reconvened later this morning.

John Junior James was arrested in Los Angeles last June after he tried to rob a telephone office with a toy pistol.

Loyal James, now serving two 99-year sentences for his part in the robbery and shooting, was arrested last February after a nightclub brawl in which another man was wounded at Trumann, Ark.

Break Party Label, Nixon Asks Arkansas

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon, after appealing for the vote of Arkansas Democrats, said he may venture farther into the state before the presidential campaign ends.

Henry M. Britt, of Hot Springs, the GOP candidate for governor, reported Tuesday that Nixon had revealed tentative plans for another Arkansas visit after speaking to an estimated 3,000 persons here.

Dr. Britt stressed that a second appearance would depend on Nixon's schedule, but he said if one is made, the Republican presidential candidate "will go all the way in to the heart of the state."

In his speech here Tuesday, Nixon called on Democrats to "put country before politics" and "look beneath the party label" and vote for him.

Nixon said the beliefs of Jefferson, Jackson and Woodrow Wilson now are reflected in the Republican party rather than in the Democratic fold.

Civil rights, he said, is "not just a southern issue...it's a problem of all Americans." Nixon said it was "an issue on which I have strong convictions...I know you will respect me for them."

He praised Arkansas cotton farmers, saying they "on their own initiative, have reduced surpluses...and maintained farm income."

This, he said, "is in the tradition of not waiting for the government to do something for them."

Nixon also referred to Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev as a slaughterer of thousands of Hungarians who points the finger of blame at the United States on the question of equality of treatment of the people.

The crowd, estimated at 3,000 by Police Chief H. D. Holland, stood on a windy, wet athletic field. Nixon's wife, apart, stood beside him as he talked.

Also on the platform were state GOP Chairman Ben Hentley, of Harrison, Britt, West Memphis Mayor Howell B. Price and state Nixon campaign chairman Fred Verner.

Nixon was introduced by Winthrop Rockefeller, chairman of the Arkansas Industrial Development Commission and brother of New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller.

Time Now to Register for Merit Tests

All 1962 graduates of Hope School who wish to enter the 1961-62 National Merit Scholarship competition should register now at the registrars' office, Earl Downs, Counselor, announced today. The National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test will be given at 9 a.m. Tuesday, March 7, 1961 or Saturday, March 11, 1961.

To be eligible for the test, Hope students must be second-semester juniors or first-semester seniors at the time of the examination. Students must pay a $1 fee on the day of the test. Any interested student who is unable to pay the fee should consult Mr. Downs.

The tests are given each year by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation as part of the Nation's largest independent scholarship program.

Awards are granted on the basis of intellectual merit, but student financial needs determine the size of the individual stipends, which are renewable each year without further testing.

Police Probe Thefts, Wreck

City Police investigated a wreck yesterday at 2nd and Elm involving cars driven by Carroll Yacom and Lana Thompson. Officers said the Thompson car backing out of a parking space and collided with the other vehicle. There was heavy damage to both cars.

Officers also report a case of Dorothy Perkins lotion was taken from Harvey Allen's auto which was parked downtown. At the High School a Mustang motor scooter owned by Charles Dudley was reported stolen. Officers said.

Breach Contract Suit Is Filed

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The Garland County Industrial Development Corp. today filed a breach of contract suit against Style-Rite, Inc., a firm which once rented a factory from the GIDC.

The suit asks judgment of $6,245.90 for rents allegedly due from December, 1959, through September, 1960.

Named as co-defendants were Style-Rite Robes, Inc., of Missouri and Harry Tosen, who was identified only as believed to be of Dallas. Tex. Style-Rite Robes was identified as a successor company to Style-Rite, Inc.

The suit says Style-Rite agreed to lease an industrial building from the GIDC but moved out after occupying the building only for six months, from May, 1958, to October, 1958.

Style-Rite had contracted to pay a $824.59 monthly rental on the plant, the action alleges, but failed to make any payments after the plant was closed.

Khrushchev Is Smarting From UN Setbacks

NEW YORK (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today he and Yugoslav President Tito have agreed on a "very close" on the problems of disarmament, the Congo and steps to safeguard peace.

The Soviet leader, a big gain on his face, announced this after he had met privately for an hour and 45 minutes with Tito, who has backed Moscow domination.

Khrushchev said he and Tito did not discuss Communist ideological differences. He said they avoided this because Khrushchev is in New York in his role as premier while Tito is a president.

Khrushchev, with Tito standing beside him, created a big flurry of excitement at first by appearing to announce that the two men had settled the bitter ideological dispute that has kept Yugoslavia out of the Soviet camp since 1948.

A newsman asked if they had settled their ideological quarrel. Khrushchev apparently did not hear the nature of the question and shot back: "We have fully come to terms."

In reply to further questions, however, he made it clear that he and Tito did not seek to reconcile their differences on whether Yugoslavia should take orders from Moscow.

"Our viewpoints coincide or are very close on all questions discussed," Khrushchev said.

He went on to list the questions discussed as disarmament, the Congo and measures for "safeguarding of peace."

Khrushchev reported that he and Tito did not get into the Soviet demand that United Nations

It looks like what this country needs is a way to keep politics out of politics.

The 1961 Ford Galaxie Club Victoria (top), a new model in the Ford line that will be introduced to the public on September 29, features the crisp, fresh appearance that earned a gold medal from an international fashion authority for "functional expression of classic beauty." Ford's station wagon series includes the nine-passenger Country Squire (bottom) and introduces another new model—a six-passenger version of the Country Squire. The new Ford station wagons have a roll-down tailgate window, and the tailgate itself, seven inches wider than in 1960. All 1961 Fords feature new dimensions for greater maneuverability, and such major engineering improvements as 30,000-mile lubrication, heavier, self-adjusting brakes, and longer-lasting bright trim and underbody parts.

Porkers Picked to Lose First SWC Game

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Football is a kicking game. If you don't believe it, just listen to some of the alumni. None of them will be grumbling after this week's games. Here are the winners:

Mississippi over Memphis State. This looks like a breeze for the Rebel team but Memphis State statistically has the second-best offense in the nation. But it wasn't built up against teams of Mississippi's caliber.

Syracuse over Kansas. The score was close a year ago but Syracuse led the Big Eight team in first downs, 32-4. This is the TV morsel for this week.

Washington over Navy. The Huskies see this as a big step toward greater national recognition. The Midshipmen Joe Bellino will give the Washington fans fits, however.

Illinois over West Virginia. Johnny Easterbrook's passing to make touchdowns out of the Mountaineers.

Iowa over Northwestern. Dick Thornton, the Wildcats' big gun, is out with a leg injury.

Clemson over Virginia Tech. The Clemson line is one of the best in the south.

Ohio State over Southern California. The Buckeyes' new offensive will make the afternoon a miserable one for the McKeever twins.

Elsewhere:

Georgia Tech over Florida; Tennessee over Mississippi State; Purdue over Notre Dame; Texas over Texas Tech; Alabama over Vanderbilt; Penn State over Missouri.

Plead Innocent in Bombing Case

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Two white men charged in an attempted bombing of a Negro college here last July 11 pleaded innocent on arraignment in U. S. District Court today.

Judge J. Smith Henley said he probably would set trial for Emmett E. Miller, 44, and Robert Lloyd Parks, 38, both of West Memphis, on Oct. 17 or shortly thereafter.

Kenneth Coffelt, attorney for the men, had asked for an early trial.

Arraignment for a third man charged in the bomb plot, Hugh Lynd Adams of Bassett, was postponed with no new date set.

U. S. Atty. Osro Cobb suggested that all three men should be tried together and Coffelt said he had no objection to this.

Miller and Parks were arrested shortly after midnight July 11 at Philander Smith College for Negroes. The FBI charged them with transporting dynamite from Memphis for the purpose of blowing up one of the college buildings.

The same charge was lodged against Adams, who was arrested at his home at Bassett, near West Memphis, about the same time the other were taken in custody here.

1961 Ford Has Crisp, New Styling

The 1961 Ford features crisp new styling, new dimensions for greater maneuverability, and major engineering improvements such as 30,000-mile lubrication, that will result in lower maintenance costs and more carefree operation.

James O. Wright, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, said the new Ford, nearly four inches shorter and two inches narrower than in 1960, will offer "a completely new, fresh appearance in the classic Ford tradition of straight-line design."

Mr. Wright also announced the 1961 Ford styling has been recognized for its "functional expression of classic beauty" by a world-renowned fashion authority. In Rome, Italy, against a backdrop of the new fashion center of the world, the Centro Per l'Alta Moda Italiana recently presented Ford Motor Company with a special medal honoring the 1961 Ford.

Mr. Wright said engineering and design improvements in the 1961 Ford make it "a car that virtually takes care of itself."

Improvements include:

— A new grease and lubrication system that extends the normal chassis lubrication interval to 30,000 miles.

— New, heavier brakes that adjust themselves.

— Specially processed underbody parts, including galvanized body panels below the doors, that resist rust and corrosion.

— Aluminized mufflers that are double-wrapped for three times normal life.

— A 250-per cent increase in the thickness of anodizing on aluminum surfaces for brighter, longer-lasting grille, headlamp and tail lamp trim.

Khrushchev Is

Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld be tired. Khrushchev seemed in a better mood after the meeting than he was when he greeted Tito on the sidewalk in front of his Park Avenue home. At that time, he seemed grumpy and barely talked with newsmen clustered around the entrance.

By LEWIS GULICK

NEW YORK (AP) — Nikita Khrushchev says he's willing to be locked up in a room with President Eisenhower until white smoke—the signal of agreement—floats out of the chimney. The atheistic Soviet premier quickly snapped up this College of Cardinals' idea when it was suggested Tuesday night. He peddled it again during his round of socializing at diplomatic receptions. "Although I am not a Catholic, I am familiar with the procedure, and I agree," the bouncy Khrushchev told his first host of the eve-

Downgrade U.S., Never Says Kennedy

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH

ERIE, Pa. (AP)—John F. Kennedy, campaigning for the electoral vote of Pennsylvania and New York, said today he downgrades the leadership of the Republican party and not — his Vice President Richard M. Nixon — has contended — the United States of America.

"I have never been critical of our country," Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee, declared in taking issue with Nixon, his Republican rival. Nixon has accused Kennedy of disparaging the nation in saying it needs to be strengthened. Kennedy started another day-long grueling tour inspired by huge crowds which have been greeting him with increased fervor since his television-radio debate Monday night with Nixon.

"We cannot have our prestige high abroad unless we are moving here at home," Kennedy said. "I want us to demonstrate that we can be first — not first, but, first, if, but first now, period," he said.

An opinion poll, he said, showed that a majority of people in 12 countries felt the Soviet Union would be ahead of the United States militarily and scientifically by 1970.

"If people think that it is so it might become so," Kennedy said. "I don't think it is so, and I think we can make sure it isn't so."

Police Capt. O. G. Holland estimated a crowd at a party rally in front of an Erie hotel at more than 15,000. High school classes were dismissed for the rally.

Bartler, Kennedy addressed a breakfast in Erie attended by about 400 cheering Democratic party workers. In his text for the breakfast, Kennedy spoke of the Lake Erie port as a thriving centhat the assembly will override the decisions of the steering committee, which recommended for the 10th year not to put the question of seating Red China on this year's agenda.

The Soviets lost out, too, in their pressure for immediate debate on Khrushchev's contention of "aggression in the Congo and the creation there of a breeding ground of tension. The committee stopped a Soviet drive to put this before the assembly at once.

This was a foundation of Khrushchev's assault upon Hammarskjöld and of his use of the term "stooges" in his charges that the secretary-general abused the office to the advantage of the West in the Congo crisis. The committee approved a British motion to adjourn debate on Congo, thus putting off action until later.

Assembly delegates will be watching closely for the votes and attitudes of new African members on such issues when they come up for full dress discussion eventual.

There is no chance, however, y in the assembly.

Man's Inhumanity to Man

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen:
I am a mother over 40. My husband and I have loved each other all the 22 years of our married life. Our two children have a happy home, are well-dressed and share in all local activities.

Mrs. Earl O'Neal, Mrs. Jack Gardner, Mrs. Sam Strong, Mrs. W. M. Reinhardt, Dr. and Mrs. R. B. Moore, and Joe Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Ed Hays of Dallas, Tex., spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hays.

Mrs. F. C. Crow has been visiting the Neil Crow family in Ft. Smith, while Dr. F. C. Crow was on a business trip to Berryville.

Mrs. Fred Alford of Shreveport, La., spent Sunday here with Mrs. C. C. Collins.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. McDowell visited Sunday afternoon in Spring Hill with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foley.

Local Wesleyan Service Guild members who went to the district meeting in DeQueen, Tuesday night, and heard Miss Noreen Robbin, returned missionary from Africa, were Mrs. James McLarty, Jr., district secretary, Miss Mary Louise Copeland, district recording secretary, Mrs. J. W. Patterson, Mrs. Roy Stephenson, Mrs. Ben Edmiston, Mrs. Marnie Gentry, Mrs. Elmer Brown, Mrs. Hazel Castle, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. B. C. Hyatt, Mrs. Glenice Porter, Mrs. Lillian Ringo, Mrs. Mary Hamm, and Mrs. B. N. Holt. Mrs. Paul Klipsch also went with the group.

Our daughter is 20, our son 14. When she was 10, I gave her a mixed party for the first time, inviting both boys and girls. From then on she was allowed to date boys. I knew till she graduated from high school. When she went to work she dated at her own discretion. A year ago a boy gave her a real rush. We all liked him. When he bought her a ring, she insisted she was too young to marry. Three months ago they announced their engagement, a month later they told us they expected a baby in the fall.

This floored me. Her Dad insisted she have the wedding she always wanted. Everybody came and they've been talking ever since. People I've known for years snub me. My husband says I'm wrong to avoid them. We have discussed moving to another town. What did we do wrong in raising our daughter? How can we help our 14-year-old boy avoid making the same mistake?

Please do not say go to church with this problem. These groups are all church people who do not want what they consider sinners in their congregations. —Disillusioned Mother

Dear Disillusioned Mother: First of all, don't let those gossipers make you believe that your daughter is a sinner. Unwise, yes, but not sinful. Secondly, don't let them drive you out of town. Stay above them, their pettiness. Rejoice in the fact that you and your husband love each other and your children. That's probably more than most of them can say. Above all, don't let this so-called calamity shadow your home life. Then your son really might suffer. If you take it in your stride, he will too.

Dear Helen:

What should I do about a mother-in-law who phones to say I am not a good manager? I was so hurt I was speechless. She was telling me I am a failure as far as my marriage goes.

I have two lovely children, a girl 13 and boy six. We are so happy there are not enough hours in the day. I have so much to enjoy. But this thing has made me an unhappy girl. My own mother would never think of saying what my mother-in-law said to me. While she has been lucky where money is concerned, she is the most unhappy person, always trying to get things cheaper. Perhaps I should save more but there is always something to buy for the children and I keep myself nice. —Mrs. M. S.

Dear Mrs. M. S.: You are rich in the true sense of the word, and your mother-in-law despises her money, poor. That's probably why she carps. Ignore the prods and go on your happy way.

Dear Helen:

I have been going with this fellow for about eight months. I really love him very much. Sometimes he acts like he really likes me, and other times like he hates me. This fellow is my boss. He is 21 and single and I am 17. When guys come in and flirt with me, he gets madder than all heck. We argue about anything. It is so silly, really because we end up not talking to each other, then when he takes me home after work, we make up.

Please tell me what to do. I have thought about quitting my job and never seeing my boss again, but that doesn't work because I have done it and now I am working for him again. —A.

Dear Alice: From what you tell me, your boss is in love with you, or thinks he is.

Stop dating him and see if he doesn't ring your doorbell. But don't mix work and love. If you really are in love with your boss, find a job elsewhere. Be on guard against mistaking propinquity for the real thing.

Send your problem to Helen Worden Erskine. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her care of this newspaper. Write for "Is There a Test for Love?"

HERE!
'61 CHEVY TRUCKS

WITH WORK-PROVED INDEPENDENT FRONT SUSPENSION!

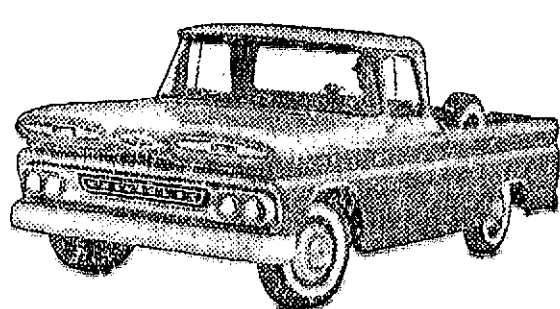

WORTH MORE BECAUSE THEY WORK MORE!

Chevy's '61 fleet swings in with a ready-made reputation as the trucks that are worth more because they work more...the latest editions of the haulers that scrapped the I-beam axle and proved the important advantages of independent front suspension!

You'll find new models in the '61 fleet—lower priced, long-wheelbase 4-wheel drive trucks—and thoughtful refinements throughout the line. But the big news for '61 is nailed-down proof (based on actual owner reports) that Chevrolet's torsion-spring design is the best thing that's happened to trucks in decades!

With Chevy's independent front suspension and Sturdi-Bilt design, you cruise over trails where other trucks creep. You feel the difference in less wheel fight and vibration. You can see why drivers are happier, why loads are better protected and why the truck itself will stand up to thousands of miles of more work. That goes for any size Chevy, too—pickups, tilt cabs, tandems, all of them.

Check the latest specs with your Chevrolet dealer; capacity, power teams, options, the works. Then, by all means, drive a '61. Once around your Chevrolet dealer's block and you'll never be satisfied with a front axle truck again!

Whip this Flatside over a rutted road and find out what torsion springs are all about!

Ford Falcon Successful New Auto

The Ford Falcon, most successful new car in history, enters the 1961 model year with a proven record of all-round economy, leadership, six-passenger comfort, handling ease and dependable operation, and introduces a new 101-horsepower performance option—the Falcon 170 Special engine.

In its first year, the Falcon established itself as the standard of American compact cars. James O. Wright, Ford Motor Company vice president and Ford Division general manager, said: "No other car ever achieved the first year success of nearly a half million since it was introduced in October, 1959," he added.

The 1961 Falcon has a new, convex-shaped aluminum grille but preserves the styling and its side-outside dimensions of its predecessor. Mr. Wright said: "That means the Falcon will continue to offer full six-passenger seating room, the feel and maneuverability of a sports car, and a 23.7-cubic-foot trunk to carry luggage in real vacation quantities."

In addition, Mr. Wright pointed out that numerous durability improvements in the 1961 Falcon will result in greater savings and less inconvenience to Falcon owners. Among these improvements are 2½-times thicker moldings on the aluminum surfaces, doubling of the aluminum underbody parts for greater rust and corrosion protection, and more effective use of stainless steel for parts such as the new hub caps.

The 1961 Falcon, to be introduced by Ford dealers on September 29, will be offered in four models—two- and four-door sedans and two- and four-door station wagons.

The 1961 Ford Falcon (Tudor Sedan, top) features a new, convex-shaped aluminum grille and introduces a new optional 101-horsepower engine along with durability improvements in aluminum surfaces, underbody parts and exterior trim items. The Falcon, most successful new car in history, delivers over 80 miles per gallon on regular grade gasoline. The Fordor station wagon (bottom) features the convenient roll-down tilting window and a 76.2-cubic-foot load space, comparable to that of the 1957 Ford. The 1961 Falcon will be offered in four models—two- and four-door sedans and two- and four-door station wagons. The new Falcon preserves the styling of the 1960 model, and continues to offer six-passenger seating room, the sports car feel, and 23.7-cubic-foot luggage capacity.

Daniels New Chairman of Governors

By AL DOPKING

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Gov. Price Daniel of Texas was named new chairman of the Southern Governors Conference at its closing session today.

This election followed three days in which governors supporting Sen. John F. Kennedy for the presidency whipped up new enthusiasm for the Democratic candidate's chances in the South.

Gov. S. Ernest Vandiver of Georgia was named vice chairman, a newly-created post. "The governors also decided to hold their 1961 conference in Tennessee, probably at Gatlinburg," Daniel, in his acceptance of the chairmanship, said. "This is one of the things I did not seek but I am very happy to serve you."

THE EASTER DINNER

BY DONALD DOWNES

Copyright © 1960 by Donald Downes. Classified by Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

(THE STORY: A German patrol intercepts an American espionage group which is to bring some carrier pigeons to Rome. Gial, an Italian youth, is shot by the patrol.)

The morning after the affray on the beach, Oberst. Kraftt again faced the semicircle of his staff across his desk, and again chewed on his spectacles.

"I can understand those trigger-happy SIPO men mulling over the job by opening fire before the enemy had landed, but Lieutenant Schenkel is at least supposed to be an intelligence officer especially trained — not just a common policeman."

"He had forbidden the SIPO's to fire until he gave the order: so did our Feldwebel, Weissbrodt, who was with them, but —"

"But, but, but! Bring Lieutenant Schenkel here."

Major Eggen stepped to the door and summoned Lieutenant Schenkel, a small, nervous, dark-haired young man in his twenties. He came to attention and saluted. Kraftt neither offered him a seat, nor gave him the order to stand at ease.

"Lieutenant Schenkel, according to your military record you have a degree in law from Marburg."

"Ja, mein Oberst."

"Do not interrupt me. You went to the SD school at Dortmund. The special counter-intelligence school at Ulm. You allegedly accomplished brilliantly a mission in Norway. Then in Holland. Can you explain how with that record, you allowed an Allied clandestine operation to slip through your fingers because you could not control a few SIPO policemen?"

Schenkel opened his mouth to reply, but Kraftt held up his hand to silence him. "I have not finished. Can you explain why you bungled this operation so badly that you have nothing to show for it except the corpse of an Italian schoolboy with no identity card, no way to identify him? Not a single lead, not a single clue." He paused before he added, "Reply."

"It was dark, Herr Oberst. It was raining. Both the Feldwebel and I had specifically ordered the three SIPO men under no circumstances to fire until they were ordered to or until I myself had opened fire."

"Go on."

"We had met after two routine patrols, one by the Feldwebel and two SIPO men, one by me with the other SIPO man, to the north and to the south. It was after we met that I first heard the motor. Then, a few minutes later we saw the signal from the land. If there was one, there must have been a dime between us and the enemy on the beach. A long time passed. Then, we saw another signal of only one flash. It was so close that in its light I could see the three small boats. Then it was that the SIPO man Harmann opened fire. Then, we all fired, since our presence had been disclosed, and someone shot in that direction. I must have killed the Italian."

"No doubt you expect to get an Iron Cross for killing an Italian schoolboy. You may go."

Schenkel gave the "Heil Hitler!" salute and, clicking his heels, left the room.

"And let's use our heads a little instead of only our feet." Kraftt stared at the ceiling. "If you were an English or American intelligence officer and you wanted to land men and supplies, and you had managed — thanks to our remarkably helpless inefficiency — to lose one of any importance on that beach last night, where would you next try to land in the same place? Certainly not! You would go south or north of that beach. Now I've been studying the map closely this morning, and it seems to me that the obvious spots, in fact the only other two places on which landings can be made that are really well hidden, uninhabited and with easy access to the highway, are the little beaches south of Santa Marinella — but they are dangerous."

Far from home — and the other spot is the long beach south of Fregene where there are no houses at all. If you take my advice, you will cover thoroughly those three or four kilometers of beach to which I refer. That's not an order, but it is a hint."

He paused for a moment and shuffled some papers around on his desk.

"I have here," he continued, "Kapitan Gunther's report that he is intercepting, and I quote, 'at least 11 clandestine radio transmitters in the Rome area which are using ciphers of the Anglo-American type.' But I cannot find a report of any arrests here."

He scribbled exaggeratedly among the papers on his desk.

"There is a report here, about the Cave woman." He picked up a sheet of paper and slipped his spectacles on his nose. "It seems that only after her dog was returned did we finally catch up
